We await with much patience the coming of the time when our colored politicians may delve deep enough into politics to see the colored vote of the population of this state is an important factor in elections. When this is recognized and the sober, intelligent and influencial colored men put in lead; when men who can influence our people to move in a good direction come to the front and declare out for honest elections and a fair count, then it will be unlike Mr. Cabbell asserted; that the colored vote is not worthy of note, but then the old ship of state shall move off and we shall resent all such attacks with impunity.

worker in the gospel ministry, having built two churches at Elkhorn, and asbuilt two churches at Elkhorn, and assisting in paying others out of debt. He is now conducting a revival at Elkhorn which has been quite a success. Eleven souls have been converted to God, and many inquirers are now at the anxious seat. He is ably assisted by Rev. J. W. Johnson of Bramwell, West Va., and Rev. V. S. Smith of Eckman, West Va. God bless Rev. Brandon in his work.

Rev. W. J. Carter of Pocahontas was in the city to day (Monday) and called around to our office on Scott St. He was enroute to Dublin, Va., where he has been called to assist in a revival for a few weeks. It was with much regret when we were informed by this distinguished divine that he had tendered his resignation to both of his churches. In 1894 and 1895 was a trifle under four bushels. This was 38 per cent below the per capita home consumption in 1890, when times were good.

With cheap-wheat abroad, it is always of prime importance that we maintain by legislation among our own people the highest consuming power, and to do this highest consuming power, and to do this fairly good wages in this country are those who are especially skilled in the mechanical branches, and most of them are natives of the United States. These are cold, hard facts which cannot be refuted by the silver rainbow chasers. The United States is not exempted and cannot by legislation be exempted from the inexorable rules of business and commerce. If low prices are the result of the allege "crime of 1873" and that the purchasin power of the dollar has been leasened.

Tariff. Our party believes now, as it has always believed, that the business of this country must be done with dollars that are worth must be done with dollars that are worth 100 cents each in every state of the Union and in every part of the civilized world. We do not want a cheap dollar any more than we want cheap men. We no more want free silver than we want free trade. We want good money and a protective tariff, and then we want, by our votes on the 3d of November, to tell the whole world that this is a government of law and a government of integrity and of unsuilled honer.

I am a protectionist because I believe the protective system is best adapted to our conditions and citizenship. It does everything that a revenue tariff does and more. It supplies needed revenue. It op-poses trusts and combinations to control the markets and order to the inform of the the markets and prices to the injury of the people, for it is opposed to free trade, which has been the parent of trusts. His High Tribute to Wife and Mother.

To wife and mother mankind is indebt-To wife and mother mankind is indebted for those high moral qualities, truth and virtue, which are so indispensable to good character, good citizenship and a noble life. Our whole political fabric rests upon the sanctity of the American home, where wife and mother preside. They teach the boys and girls purity of life and thought and aim, the way to usefulness and distinction. The world owes them more than it can ever repay. The men who love mother and wife require no bounds for their good behavior and can be safely trusted in every relation of life.

Let No Discordant Note Grats Upon This Melody of Peacel The voice that would reopen the conflicts of the past and would revive the bitterness of 30 years ago, that would army class against class or section against section is not a friend, but an enemy of our glorious Union and stands in the pathway of its glorious progress.

Let no discordant note grate upon this melody of peace! Let it go forth, let it be everywhere proclaimed, that the men of the north and the men of the south are together for the enthronement of justice and the supremacy of law.

I bid you, men of Grant and men of Lee, at the shrine of this reunion dedicate poor loves anew. Hejoice all of you, and pary loves anew. Rejoice all of you, and pary God that the cause of truth and hu-man weal be transferred from the sword's steel to peace and love.

The money that will buy the most is the money that we want, and what you want is an opportunity to earn it. You cannot earn it through the mints, but through the mills, the mines, the factories and by honest toil. We can only do the best we know how in this world. We can only follow the light as God gives us to see the light. I believe, my feilow citizens, that with returning confidence—and confidence is said the capital of the world—money will come out from its hiding place, be invested in enterprises all over the country and put all sile men to work, and, so believing, I stand for that policy which will most surely restern confidence.

The Voice of Patriotism The inspiring and unconquerable senti-ment of this campaign is country first, country last and country with stainless honor all the time. The voice of the mis-guided partisan is not heeded. The voice of patriotism strikes the one responsive chord this year. The voice of prejudice and hate is lost in the grand chorus of peace and good will, national unity and Patriotism is not bound by state or class or sectional lines. We are a reunited country. We have but one flag, the glorious stars and stripes, which all of us love and which we mean to transmit in honor and glory to our children north and south. Sectionalism was surrendered at Appomat-ticz, and the years which have followed have removed whatever lingering resist-Will Make Business Good

Besides, it is rather late in the day to represent Mr. McKinley as an enemy of the pensioners, for every one of his public utterances to the old soldiers who have called to see him has breathed a spirit of friendliness, sympathy and support.

The day is an enemy of the letter pursue account of work and other things.

We have among our people two many young people, unable to compete with the business men of other races. Our voters have to depend on others to scratch our ballot. This should not be. Rev. Goode Preaches—Mr. Banister Gone

Danville, Va., Oct. 22, 1896

Services at Calvary Baptist Church
Sunday, October 25th, were as follows:

Rev. R. C. Fox, the little, able go ahead and stirring pastor of Scott St. Baptist Church has just closed his three weeks revival which broke the record of all other revivals in this section this year. Twenty-eight professed Christ, and among them are some of the vilest sinners of any city. To hear them talk about our Lord, a rue child of God could but say they have surely had the love of God applied to their souls. The grandest feature of the meetings was on the night of October 12th, when the power of God was demonstrated so wonderful, we could but say God was surely in 1000 men out of work and nearly 4,000,000 Rev. R. C. Fox, the little, able go of meeting during the past week at the church, preached an excellent sermon from II Kings 4:26. Again several came forward for prayer and there were three conversions The meetings have indeed been very successful during the past week and the Lord has poured out his blessings copiously, there having been already over 100 converts.

Mr. T. G. Banister for many years a merchant and clothfier of Danville, died at his home Thursday morning on Union street. His funeral was preached at Saint Pauls A M E. Church, Sunday, October 25th.

managers have found it necessary to expose misrepresentations on the part of the Demmisrepresentations on the part of the Democrats. Early in the campaign the forgery of an editorial attributed to the London Financial News was exposed. A little later the Wall street myth, "J. Francis Forsythe," was used as a bugaboo to scare the workingmen, and he, too, was shown to be a fraud. What other frauds the opposition may devise for the last few days of the campaign it is impossible to imagine, but campaign it is impossible to imagine, but the Republican leaders both here and in Chicago are on the alert, and they will not allow any of these frauds or forgeries to go inchallenged.

These letters have from time to time rered to the feeling of confidence that the imbers of the national committee have members of the national committee have in the result of the election. There is no reason to withdraw anything that has been said on this point. On the contrary, the belief in the success of McKinley and Ho-bart has been steadily growing, until now it amounts to an absolute certainty. There is, of course, no question about the east, but the reports that have come in from the south and the west have served to strength. south and the west have served to strength en the opinion that the so called doubtfu Kinley, while several of the southern states
